

TECHNISCHE
UNIVERSITÄT
DARMSTADT

TUD | Institut für Philosophie | Dolivostr. 15 | 64293 Darmstadt

Professor Daniel Menezes

Professor at the Mackenzie University Law School

São Paulo, Brazil

LETTER OF INTENT

I am pleased to confirm that – through me, my immediate collaborators, and quite likely some colleagues in the Department of Political Science – the Technische Universität Darmstadt will gladly participate and collaborate in the CAPES / PrInt Project together with Mackenzie Presbyterian University.

Especially in regard to the global actions required with regard to emerging technologies, the link between our academic communities can contribute to greater internationalization and understanding.

In this context, we will contribute to the following functions and tasks as established in the work program:

- a. We will participate in workshops and intellectual exchange on our ongoing research.
- b. We will welcome and provide an academic setting for recipients of PhD scholarships.
- c. We will assume the position of visiting professor in Brazil for a period of 15 days to 1 month.
- d. We will welcome and host recipients of research scholarships.
- e. We will contribute to professional training courses.

Institut für
Philosophie
Department of Philosophy

INSTITUT FÜR
PHILOSOPHIE
DARMSTADT

Prof. Dr. Alfred
Nordmann

Dolivostr. 15
64289 Darmstadt

Tel. +49 6151 16-57334
nordmann@phil.tudarmstadt.de

6. Mai 2019

At the Technische Universität Darmstadt I will act as liaison and contact person for this collaboration: Prof. Dr. Alfred Nordmann, Fachbereich 2, Institut für Philosophie, Dolivostr. 15, 64293 Darmstadt, Tel number: +49 6151 16-57334 and +49 6151 16-57488. In the attachment you will find a copy of my CV.

This Letter of Intent is the formal beginning of our friendly co-operation. No legal or financial obligation is implied by it. The details and the specific work plan will be considered in our first planning meetings.

(Alfred Nordmann)