LETTER OF INTENT/COMMITMENT FOR PARTNER INSTITUTIONS PARTICIPATING IN THE CAPES-PRINT PROJECT

This letter is to confirm that London South Bank University School of Law & Social Sciences, represented by Associate Professor Andy Unger, Head of the Law Division, is honored and committed to participate and collaborate in the CAPES/PrInt Project along with Mackenzie Presbyterian University.

We deem it mutually beneficial to strengthen the bonds between the two academic communities and to contribute to a greater internationalization and understanding between both Institutions and nations.

As a partner in this project, our institution is undertaking to perform the following roles and tasks as set out in the work programme (description of the roles and tasks) and other activities considered relevant:

Work missions related to joint research undertakings
PHD Scholarships ranging to 12 months
Visiting Professor positions in Brazil (15 days)
Visiting Professor positions abroad (3 months)
Research-Fellow Scholarships abroad
Professional Training courses (15 days)

Each party shall designate an official representative and office to serve as liaison for implementing this Letter of Intent. For London South Bank University, the representative and contact person will be Senior Lecturer in Law, Alan Russell, LSBU School of Law & Social Sciences, 30 Borough Road, London, SE1 0AA, UK. Please, find attached a copy of his/her CV.

This Letter of Intent is the beginning of our friendly collaboration on this project. It does not impose any legal or financial obligations. Details and specific work plan shall be pursued by future discussions.
