

PRÓ-REITORIA DE PESQUISA E PÓS-GRADUAÇÃO

Coordenadoria de Programas de Pós-Graduação Stricto Sensu

Portuguese Language Week

The Human Mobility and Cultures in Plural Project: the challenge of coexistence, in one of its aspects, the one most focused on the Linguistics and Literature Graduate Program, brings together researchers who focus on the role of Portuguese as a global and an international language, from the experiences in social contexts in which the Portuguese language, although it does not enjoy the status of official, has been projecting itself and being a focus of interest not only in the academic environment, but also in the economic and cultural context. Thus, following these researches, events such as Portuguese Language Week and Open Lessons were held.

UNESCO defined the 5th of May as the International Day of the Portuguese Language. In order to celebrate this day, the Linguistics and Literature Graduate Program promoted, as a consequence of the work done by Print-CAPES / Mackenzie Project activities “Human mobility and plural cultures: the challenge of coexistence”, the Portuguese Language Week, involving the following universities partners:

05/03/21 - Profa. Isabel Margarida Duarte from the University of Porto (Portugal).

Lecture “Portuguese pluricentric language, coexistence with other languages and teaching”.

Link: <https://youtu.be/l6jqBmfdVb4>

Accesses: 395 (until 05/21/21).

05/05/21 - Profa. Vera Lúcia de Oliveira Maccherani from the University of Perugia (Italy) Lecture: “In what language do you speak? Teaching Portuguese in Italy”.

Link: <https://youtu.be/T7WHSrAeHW0>

Accesses: 38 (until 05/21/21).

PRÓ-REITORIA DE PESQUISA E PÓS-GRADUAÇÃO

Coordenadoria de Programas de Pós-Graduação Stricto Sensu

05/07/21 - 1. Profa. Luiza Marinho Paulinelli from the University of Madeira (Portugal)
Lecture: “If Lusophone is a dream, who is the dreamer?”

Link: <https://youtu.be/pEytIFTE4YM>

Accesses: 397 (until 05/21/21).

2. Prof. Kátia Chulata of the University of Pescara (Italy)

Link: <https://youtu.be/WyGaTCopi1l>

Accesses: 209 (until 05/21/21).