Mission: The challenge of living together. Conference "Poetic Creation"

February 7, 2020

The conference "Poetic Creation" was given on 07/02/2020 by Professor Dr. Vera Lúcia de Oliveira (University of Perugia- Italy) to undergraduate and graduate students during her participation in the PrInt mission at UPM. The conference discussed about the poetic creation as a part of literature focused on socio-cultural context and it was given to professors, undergraduate and graduate students. Professor Vera, as a researcher and also a poet, presented an original approach on poetry. The expected duration of the conference (1h30) extended for some extra time to include a debate with the audience and also for information regarding the PrInt and the partnership between the Universities (Perugia and UPM).
