Counterpart actions: MPU / Princeton University

On August 9th and 10th, 2019, Maria Lucia Vasconcelos and Neusa Bastos, professors in the Linguistics and Literature's MPU Graduate Program, attended the VIII EMEP – Encontro Mundial sobre o Ensino de Português (World Meeting about Portuguese Teaching) organized by American Organization of Portuguese Teachers, at the Princeton University. Matheus da Costa Nunes, undergraduate student, also attended the meeting.

Professor Maria Lucia Vasconcelos presented two works. The first one is called Educação e conscientização: o exercício crítico da liberdade (Education and awareness: the critic exercise of freedom). The second work was a partnership between the professor Maria Lucia Vasconcelos and the undergraduate student Metheus da Costa Nunes (PIBID) and it is called A voz do aluno como ação motivadora nas aulas de Língua Portuguesa (The student voice as a motivating action in the portuguese language classes). Professor Neusa Bastos also presented a work called Ensino de Língua Portuguesa no Século XXI (Portuguese Language Teaching in the 21st century).
